

The British Labour Movement and Imperialism

26 – 27 June 2008

University of Central Lancashire, Preston, UK

The Department of Humanities at the University of Central Lancashire and the People's History Museum invite you to an international, interdisciplinary conference on the relationships between the British Labour Movement and imperialism to be held on 26-27 June 2008. The conference will be interdisciplinary and includes contributions from the fields of History, Politics, Sociology, Film and Media Studies, Cultural Studies, Literature and other related disciplines.

Confirmed Keynote speakers now include: Tony Benn and Neville Kirk

The range of themes include the following:

Labour, Popular Culture & Empire
Labour, 'race' and migration
Labour and the economics of Empire
Labour and cultural imperialism
Labour, war and imperialism
Labour & Ireland
Labour Gender & imperialism
Labour & Palestine
Labour and Decolonisation

Enquiries to:

Emma Kelly
Conference Officer
Conference and Events Management
Office
University of Central Lancashire, Foster
Room 10
Preston PR1 2HE, UK

Call for Papers

The conference team are still considering proposals for papers up until April 2008. Please send your proposal (200–300 words) to Dr Billy Frank, Combined Honours Unit, University of Central Lancashire, Preston, PR1 2HE (bfrank@uclan.ac.uk) and David Stewart, Department of Humanities at same address (DStewart@uclan.ac.uk). We welcome proposals from doctoral candidates as well as from established academics and practitioners in related fields. We look forward to hearing from you.