

Messages and Meanings

Guide to messages in the banners at the People's History Museum.

Adam and Eve - humanity and the origins of mankind

Beehive - industry and co-operation of the workforce

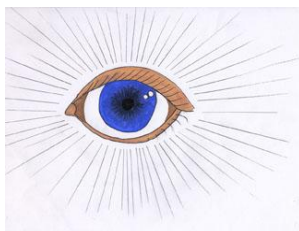

Bundle of sticks - strength through unity

Clasped hands - unity, fellowship and friendship. 'All for each and each for all'

Dove - peace

Eye - the all seeing eye of God

Flaming torch - education and knowledge

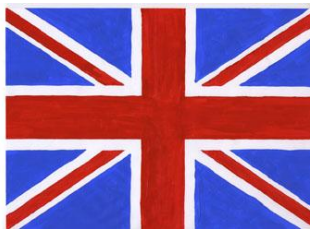

Rainbow - international co-operation

Scales - justice

Wheatsheaf - plenty

Union Jack - Britain and British pride

Serpent - evil